

Sermon → Watchman's Actions

This Sunday's sermon becomes five actions you'll do this week.

Most men consume preaching like entertainment — they feel something Sunday and forget it by Tuesday. This week you break the habit: take this Sunday's sermon and turn it into five concrete actions you'll actually do this week. AI helps you extract and sharpen; you do the doing. Build the habit of hearing the Word as an order, not a performance.

THE ACTION

- Capture this Sunday's sermon — your notes, the passage, or the recording.
- Ask AI to pull out the actionable commands and applications, not just the themes.
- Sharpen them into five specific actions with a day attached to each.
- Do them this week. Report one in the channel that you completed.

HEARERS AND DOERS

The sermon you can't turn into an action is a sermon you merely enjoyed. AI is good at extraction; obedience is still yours.

SCRIPTURE

James 1:22 — "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves." The deception is feeling fed without ever being changed. Turn the meal into movement.
